As you all are witness, the Academy has made good strides in the recent past to bring it to a respectable place in the perspective of the Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Government of India. Direct or indirect contribution and much needed support of each and every NAVS fellow has been crucial in recent achievements. We need to continue with even greater vigour to achieve the important milestones, which now appear not far off. We, as senior veterinarians of the country, need to put forth a united front and elect a highly motivated, visionary and resourceful office bearers and members to the new GC for making the Vets' dreams come true. My best wishes to all!

Warm Regards,

Inderjeet Singh

Returning Officer
